Echelon D356150 IDF Turret Tactical Markings (Set 1) - folie maskujące (1:35)

Samoprzylepne folie maskujące do malowania numerów taktycznych na wieżach izraelskich czołgów
Seria limitowana.

Producent: Echelon Fine Details (Singapur)

- Panel already painted in base colour.
  - Using tweezers, gently apply mask from A section.
  - Spray white colour.
  - Apply respective masks from B section. Be sure to anchor the masks towards the bottom left corner of A section mask. There should be open gaps on the top and right edge.
  - Spray black colour.
  - Peel off all masks and place them back onto the backing paper. The result should be as shown.
- This is an instruction for typical white with black shadow tactical markings. If creating white-only or black-only markings, just use masks from B section and follow through steps 1 to 3 and spray the appropriate colour.
- Anchor B section masks towards this corner.
- There should be gaps here for black shadows to be sprayed on.
- Section masks are colored for the low part of the markings. If shadows are needed, use B section masks instead.

Enough masks to cover all 3 sides of the turret for the marking. The...

The rectangle shape of each mask fits the panel size, which is 17 x 13mm (approx).

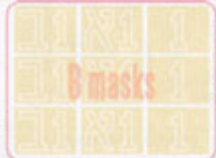

A pair of tweezers are recommended for careful handling of each mask.

Use an air-brush to spray paint onto the masks. Other methods of painting may destroy the soft masks.

See the rear page for detailed instructions on how to use the masks.

Paint masks allow realistic washed out/ faded tactical markings that appear on some tanks. An effect which is otherwise unobtainable or harder to recreate through other mediums.

This set allows 3 variations of tactical markings: white with black offset shadows, solid white, and solid black.
