USA F-15C AGGRESSOR SQUADRON PAINT SET VOL. 1
Standard colours of USAF aggressor F-15 and F-16 fleet

USA F-15C Aggressor Squadrons fly a wide variety of painting schemes that imitate the most prominent camouflages of aircraft of potential adversaries to the US (be it either unspecified post-soviet or Arab countries). Currently USAF operates two Aggressor Squadrons (18th AGRS based in Eielson AFB, Alaska and 64th AGRS based in Nellis AFB, Nevada) both flying F-15Cs. The sole F-16 aggressor unit (55th AGRS, also based at Nellis AFB) was disbanded in 2014 due to budget constraints. Part of its aircraft was taken over by sister 64th AGRS.
