A to stara ulotka reklamowa:

An advertisement for a model kit conversion. The background is a grey diamond-plate metal texture. In the top left, the word "ARMO" is written in large, red, stylized letters. To its right, the number "35807" is written in large, red, stylized letters. Below "ARMO" is a small image of a Mirage TKS tank. Below "35807" is the text "Turned metal gun barrel", "Resin part", and "Photo Etched" in red. In the center, there is a large, detailed image of the cannon part. Below this image is the text "Solothurn S18-100" in large, grey, stylized letters, followed by "Conversion for Mirage TKS" in black. At the bottom, there is contact information: "Jadar-Model, 58 Jagiellonska Street, 03-468 Warsaw, Poland" and "www.jadarhobby.pl". To the right of this is "Designed by Konrad Cichowicz" in red, followed by "email: hobby@jadarhobby.pl". There are four small gear icons in the corners of the advertisement.
